THE UNION

VOL. XVIII—NO. 83. PORTLAND, OREGON: FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1878. PRICE—TEN CENTS.

GENERAL NEWS.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.)

Death of Charles Morgan

New York, May 9.—Charles Morgan sole owner of the Morgan steamship line died yesterday He was the founder of the Morgan Iron works. The Sun says the California trade attracted his attention among the first and contributed largely to his fortune

Catching a Ghost.

Boston, May 8.—Bastian and Taylor spirit mediums, who have been doing some remarkable things here in that line, were exposed to-night by a Times reporter who caught a spook during a seance and held it tight till its strong arms unloosed his hold and a manly voice swore in round oaths at him for exposing the trick.

Rifles for Russia

Portland, Me., May 9.—It is rumored that the Evans Rifle Co of Mechanics Falls is filling large orders for the Russians on the steamer Cimbria.

Two More Victims

Minneapolis, May 9.—Two more bodies were taken from the debris of the Washburn mill. An inquest to-morrow, and a thorough investigation is expected.

National State Convention.

Philadelphia, May 9.—Upon reassembling of the National convention short addresses were made, some being of a communistic tendency. The committee on credentials reported admitting the whole labor delegation of Philadelphia, and 10 out of 46 Greenback in the delegation.

The national convention continued its session until 2:30 this morning owing to the discussion of the platform, and renewed the session and discussion at 10 o clock to-day, with but little more than half of the delegates present.

Exceptions were taken to a portion of the platform read which proposed that the party be called the Greenback labor party instead of National, and the vote upon the motion to strike out that portion of the platform provoked the liveliest discussion between the labor and greenback elements and the speeches all alluded to the two elements in the convention. The motion to strike out the greenback labor party was lost by an overwhelming vote. A resolution that the convention condemn any lawlessness or violence was adopted, and the platform read this morning was also adopted with a few amendments. It may be summarized as follows: That the party favors a high protective tariff, moderate reductions in the hours of labor, to be regulated by legislation.

The platform declares opposition to discriminating monopolies in the carrying trade and the substitution of the nation's money for bank notes. It demands the unconditional repeal of the resumption act and the recognition by congress of the efforts at internal improvements, and the encouragement of shipbuilding and ocean transportation. [illegible] any maintenance of lawlessness [illegible] the maintenance of the [illegible] of the party by judicious use of the [illegible], and changes the name of the party from "National Labor Party" to "National Greenback Labor Party." F P [illegible] was re-elected chairman of the state committee. Dr. Sturgeon, chairman of the national executive committee, delivered an address. The convention adjourned sine die.

Accurate Shooting.

Boston, May 8.—Capt. Carver, of San Francisco, did some accurate fancy shooting here to-day, breaking 25 out of 28 [illegible] seconds. He brought down a partridge in a flock, firing 700 to 800 yards [illegible]. Captain Bogardus also made remarkable experimental shots. Carver will shoot again to-morrow, and a match with Bogardus is probable. His skill [illegible] Chicago.

The Cimbria's Mate.

New York, May 8.—The Sun says: From [illegible] agent of Russia now in this city it was ascertained yesterday that the steamship [illegible] sailed from Hamburg last week on a similar mission, to the Cimbria. Her departure was not telegraphed the press.

Insurance Company Enjoined.

[illegible] May 9.—The Home Mutual Insurance Company of this city has been enjoined from winding up its affairs. Assets, $712 000; liabilities, [illegible]; outstanding risks at [illegible].

Chicago City Scrip.

[illegible] May 9.—The appelate court this morning affirmed the decision of the lower court that the city scrip issued last year is valid and may be paid. This decision opens a way out of the financial muddle in which the city has been involved, and presages a favorable decision as regards the other scrip subsequently issued which is now before the supreme court on appeal from the circuit judge.

Struck by a Train and Killed.

Charles Marrigold, of the firm of Marrigold & Co., prominent Milwaukee merchants was struck by a train which was switching at the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne depot this morning and instantly killed.

Major Todd Hurt.

Major Todd, U. S. A., in command at St. [illegible] was thrown from his buggy by his horse running away, and received injuries which it is feared will prove fatal.

Whisky Rings and Frauds.

[illegible] May 9.—The Journal's Washington special says Commissioner Raum to-day said some of the whisky ring could not be [illegible] to the Cincinnati whisky frauds [illegible] the Chicago papers are making [illegible] excitement. He had ordered removal of Revenue Collector Weitzel of [illegible] because of irregularities, which [illegible] greatly magnified. Reofle, Junker [illegible] had been twice refused the right to [illegible] suits pending against them are [illegible] going to get relief.

Pardons Granted.

The President has in his first year granted [illegible].

Urging his Pet Scheme.

Montgomery Blair held a long consultation with Representative Kimball and others trying to have action pressed on the presidential [illegible].

A New Military Road.

[illegible] May 9.—Work on the new military road from Rock Springs, on the Union Pacific railroad, and Forts Fetterman and McKinney, at the foot of the Big Horn mountains, will be begun this week and will be prosecuted vigorously until completed. The route is an important one, from the fact that it shortens the distance between the railroad and the points mentioned over fifty miles, and, besides, the road is never blocked by snow, thus lessening the road really in [illegible] about one hundred miles.

Removal of Troops.

Camp Stambaugh, Camp Brown and the post at North Platte will probably be abandoned soon by the troops, who are to be placed elsewhere. These troops are needed in the [illegible] mentioned in the dispatches yesterday, or to supply the places of others who will take the field. No trouble with Sitting Bull is anticipated within the limits of this department, but General Crook proposes to be prepared for any emergency. He [illegible] is sending scouting expeditions north and northwest of the Black Hills.

Information comes from Camp Brown to the effect that Arrapahoes under Black Coat and Sharp Nose lately arrived there and asked to have their reservation established in that vicinity so that they [illegible] return to their old friends the Shoshones.

Fears of a Fenian Raid

Toronto, May 9.—There is some basis for the reported Fenian movement in this locality, probably of persons long engaged there [illegible] and they claim they are awaiting orders from O'Neil. The better class of Irishmen do not sympathize with the movement.

WASHINGTON CITY

Water for the Desert

Washington, May 9.—Teller of Colorado to-day introduced in the senate a copy of the bill agreed upon two months ago by the house public lands committee to encourage the introduction of fresh water in the Colorado desert. The bill proposes to convey to Oliver M Wozencroft and his associates all of said lands section by section, upon payment of their present appraised value and proof being made by a commission of army engineers that sufficient water has been furnished by canals completely to irrigate such sections.

Hongkong and Callao Steamship Line

Washington, May 9.—The department of state has received a dispatch from Minister Seward reporting the opening of a steamship line between Hongkong and Callao. The object of the scheme is to facilitate Chinese emigration to Peru under the auspices of both governments. The contract with the Peruvian government stipulates that a certain number of such Chinamen as shall desire to return to their native country shall be conveyed there gratuitously on each return trip.

Bloody Scenes on the Border

Chicago, May 9.—The Inter Ocean's Washington special says a letter has just been received by Representative Schleicher from a prominent citizen of Corpus Christi Texas which contains the following reliable statement regarding recent terrible and outrageous murders committed in Webb Duval and surrounding counties by Mexicans in the garb of Indians:

I have lived in the counties of San Patricio Live Oak and Neuces for 30 years and have been through the troubles of the frontier. I have never seen such wholesale slaughter. They took little boys from 7 to 12 years old and two men on horseback would hold them up by their hands while the third would take out their entrails. The men they would shoot and take out their entrails. This was seen by women and men who were hid in the brush and we found the bodies as it was told us and in the manner stated. The killed amounted to about 25 men and children from 7 to 14 years old. This raid was made to get horses for the Mexican army and I am told by good authority that all the raiders receive is the money they can get with other valuables and one dollar a head for all horses they bring safe over the Rio Grande. I think they must have crossed over the Rio Grande with 500 or 600 head of saddle horses. There were about 35 raids altogether, and about 6 in the party that did the killing. About 10 in the one that was below San Diego and 8 or 10 in the one that crossed above Eagle Pass. When I say 500 or 600 head of horses I mean the number that was taken by the party that did the killing. The party that crossed the Rio Grande below Rio Grande City had about 150 head of horses. I do not know how many horses they crossed above Eagle Pass.

The Florida Investigation Resolution.

Washington, May 8.—A Democratic member of the house prominent in the movement for the investigation of the alleged Florida and Louisiana presidential frauds says those who have the subject in hand could not report a resolution for investigation because they have not yet agreed upon the form and details, but such a resolution will be introduced some day this week. The committee on judiciary will be entrusted with the investigation. He expresses confidence that it will pass and says every Democrat and a number of Republicans will vote for it in order that the country shall be satisfied of the character of the votes awarded Hayes and Wheeler in Florida and Louisiana.

Part of the Frauds.

Chicago, May 9.—The Tribune's Washington special says Gen Williams, of Michigan has been selected to submit the resolutions regarding the Florida and Louisiana elections. It is not certain that the resolution will be recognized as a question of privilege.

Oregon to be Included.

New York, May 8.—A Washington dispatch says if the resolution looking into the so-called Louisiana frauds is introduced into the house Hale will offer an amendment including those of Oregon and two other states.

Bill Recommended for Passage,

Washington, May 9.—The senate committee on railroads this morning agreed to recommend a bill to aid the construction of the Portland Salt Lake and South Pass Railroad by a grant of land equal to the number of acres—estimated at seven millions—restored to the public domain by the abandonment of the Northern Pacific Railroad branch across the Cascade mountains to Puget Sound.

An Ancient Greenbacker

Washington, May 9.—Peter Cooper candidate for president at the last election was given the privilege of the senate floor. He is on his way to South Carolina.

Another Humbug Bill

Washington, May 9.—The bill to aid the construction of the Portland Salt Lake and South Pass railroad which was to-day reported to the senate from the committee on railroads recites the fact that in the bill extending the time for the completion of the Northern Pacific railroad, which bill has already passed the senate some seven million acres of land heretofore granted in aid of a branch road across the Cascade mountains to Puget Sound are restored to the public domain. It also recites that by the terms of that measure the road from Umatilla to Portland along the Columbia river through the Cascade mountains is to be a common road for the use of both the Northern Pacific and Portland Salt Lake and South Pass companies. The bill then proceeds to grant ten alternate sections of public lands per mile on each side of the projected road, commencing at Umatilla and extending along the line towards Salt Lake to the maximum amount of six million acres. These land are all to be thrown open to actual settlers in tracts not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to any one person and at a price not exceeding $2 50 per acre. Homestead rights on even numbered sections are preserved to the full extent of one hundred and sixty acres, and all existing rights of settlers are carefully protected. Work must be commenced at Umatilla within six months, 25 miles of the road constructed and equipped within the next year and at least 50 miles each succeeding year, and the whole road must be completed within four years from the date of commencement. The bill finally reserves to congress, to provide by law against unjust discriminations and excessive charges.

Not En Rapport with Blair.

Washington, May 9.—Individual members of the house committee on judiciary have expressed themselves in opposition to reporting the resolution for the investigation of the alleged Florida presidential election frauds as desired by those who have initiated the proceedings. As the committee have Montgomery Blair's resolutions before them they desire to avoid the appearance of an intention to consider them in connection with the Florida question the two subjects being separate. They will be cautious that they shall not be blended one being designed to raise the question of the validity of President Hayes right to hold his office and the other merely calculated to elicit the facts in relation to the Florida election. The judiciary committee will meet to-morrow to consider suggestions already made to them as individuals should they desire to await for instructions from the house. [illegible] Williams of Michigan will offer a resolution already prepared instructing the committee [illegible] to inquire into all the facts touching the Florida election and [illegible] the [illegible] paper the [illegible] of [illegible] confession of fraud by McLin president of the board of state canvassers who participated [illegible] them and gave the electoral vote to Hayes and Wheeler. It is thought from certain indications [illegible] not be [illegible] positively, that Gen Butler will offer an amendment to such resolution [illegible] the committee also to investigate the subject of the presidential vote of [illegible].

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Grand Review

London, May 9.—The queen will review the troops at Aldershot on Monday.

Anarchy Reigns

Vienna, May 9.—Anarchy reigns in the newly annexed districts of Montenegro. Albanians Christians and Moslems refuse to submit to the Prince of Montenegro and war may break out any moment. The Austrian government has telegraphed to Smyrna for three men of war there to proceed to Cattaro.

Sailors for Russian War Ships

Paris, May 9.—It is reported that for the past few days numerous detachments of Russian sailors have been passing through France and embarking at Havre and even Liverpool for America to man vessels purchased there by the Russians.

Will Not Release Men to Fight Them

Berlin, May 9.—Russia has decided to refuse to liberate Turkish prisoners of war numbering about 60 000, in consequence of the uncertainty that the porte will maintain neutrality in the event of war between England and Russia.

Austria Offended

London, May 9.—Montenegro and Servia are giving much offense to Austria. Of Montenegro a government organ says: Austria protests against the extension of the principality to the Adriatic, and will under no circumstances permit it.

Report Righted.

The rumors lately current in Constantinople about the Russians concentrating at Pyrgos and threatening the upper Bosphorus are untrue.

The Evacuation.

The porte's answer about the evacuation of fortresses has been sent to St. Petersburg. So important change in the situation is unlikely until the Russian rejoinder is returned.

The Rhodope Insurrection.

Turkish commissioners at Philippopolis report the Rhodope insurrection still unchecked. A correspondent at Constantinople who represents the Russian idea reiterates the statement that the insurrection was never serious and will terminate without coercion as soon the insurgents are convinced that they are not included in New Bulgaria.

Form for Raising Money.

Bills will be presented to the Austrian and Hungarian legislatures Thursday asking authority for the respective ministers of finance to arrange the form in which the money voted by the delegations shall be raised. As to the motives for the step the explanation is likely to be general merely aiming to show that the government should be enabled to take these precautionary military measures both on the eastern and southern frontiers which in the opinion of the ministers, can not well be much longer delayed.

India's Contingent En Route.

Aden, May 9.—A number of British transports conveying the Indian contingent passed here to-day.

Removal of Provisions.

Constantinople, May 9.—The greater part of the Russian provisions and ammunition have been removed from San Stefano and Chataldja. Commissariat contracts signed to-day make Adrianople the point of delivery hereafter.

English Mobilization.

London, May 9.—As a result of the mobilization of the army and militia reserves 35 000 trained soldiers have taken their places in the ranks.

Conditional Evacuation.

Constantinople, May 9.—The porte has made the evacuation of Shumla conditional upon the withdrawal of the Russians to Tchataldja. The Russian military authorities are stated to have decided to only withdraw to St George, 11 miles northwest of St Stefano. The garrison of Shumla is too weak to defend the place if attacked.

Russia Evacuates Phillippopolis.

The German ambassador has received confirmation from the Russian headquarters that the Russians have evacuated Phillippopolis, Totoi, Bazarcjik and other localities near the insurgent district so as to leave full liberty of action to the porte's commissioners. The idea first entertained at Russian headquarters that the insurgents are simply brigands is now abandoned. They have a military organization.

Russians Guarding the Sereth.

Bucharest, May 9.—Five thousand Russians guard the bridge over the river Sereth and the eastern Carpathian passes.

Russo-Roumanian Relations.

Roumanian journals daily chronicle Russian movements, but the numbers are small and the transfers closely resemble settling in to the place of an army of occupation. The present attitude of the Roumanian government toward Russians is based on Premier Bratiano's circular to the prefects.

Russian Transportation.

Seven thousand Russian transport carts have left Bucharest for Bulgaria during the past few weeks. There is a large park of wagons at Kischineff.

Schools Closed

Shipments of Shells

Large shipments of heavy shells have recently been made from the line of the Danube to Black Sea ports.

Irregulars Discharged

The Turkish commander at Volo has assured the British consuls that the irregular troops have been sent out of Thessaly.

Arrival of Ironclads

Two more British ironclads of the channel squadron arrived at Port Said.

Financial Bills Introduced

Vienna, May 9.—Bills for providing the sixty million florins extraordinary credit were introduced in the Austrian reichsrath and Hungarian diet to-day.

Evacuation and Withdrawal.

Constantinople, May 9.—The porte has ordered a partial evacuation of Shumla in consideration of the removal of Russian headquarters to St George. The evacuation of the fortresses and withdrawal of the Russians is believed to depend upon the withdrawal of the British fleet. A more conciliatory feeling is now prevailing between the Turks and Russians.

Austro-Turkish Relations.

Austria is stated to have asked the porte to permit Austrian troops to escort returning Bosnian refugees. Otherwise disturbances endangering the tranquility of Turkey and Austria are probable.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

A number of new school districts are to be formed in Whitman county.

The Almota flouring mills are to have another run of 42 inch burrs and other improvements.

A petition is in circulation at Fort Vancouver praying that woman suffrage may be incorporated in the state constitution to be framed next month.

An Indian war has broken out at Spokane falls. Two siwashes who had been doing a day's washing for a citizen set upon him to make him pay the bill. Result of the [illegible] unknown.

Franco-American Commercial Convention

[illegible] May [illegible]—[illegible] on Chat [illegible] delegate of the French committee organized in Paris to secure a commercial treaty between this country and France had a conference to-day with the executive committee of the directors of the board of trade and laid before them his plans for a conference between the commercial men of his country and the United States. The board will soon consider and act on his proposition.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate

Washington, May 9.

During the second session the Mexican award bill was discussed amended and passed. [illegible] were reported and consideration of the [illegible] resumed. [illegible] took up the bankruptcy bill. [illegible] repeal take effect September 1st when [illegible] he would make the time August 1st. He thought the people need preparation for repeal. [illegible] Matthews thought that January 1st was a proper time for the act to take effect. An earlier time would make it retroactive. He wanted the bankruptcy law to continue as it is until its repeal was a foregone conclusion. He would vote for making the act repealing it take effect September 1st [illegible] the [illegible] repeal.

Motions to adjourn and to adjourn till Monday were rejected.

Maxey opposed all the senate amendments and favored the passage of the bill at once. He yielded to Davis of Illinois on whose motion the senate adjourned.

House

The joint resolution reported from the committee on education and labor for the enforcement of the nine hour law in all departments of the government gave rise to a lively discussion in the course of which Banks denounced the disregard of law by the government as scandalous and infamous.

Butler of Massachusetts advocated a penalty for its disregard and said there was more powder and ball wanted in the administration of the laws.

The joint resolution passed.

Kelley of Pa said the wool grower of the west could get no price for his wool because wool manufacturers of the east did not know what the tariff was to be and did know if this tariff was to prevail his mill must go with the millions of idle men now unemployed. With forges furnaces and factories entirely closed how would the working people be fed and what army would keep them in order? No one could tell whether the pending bill would most promote free trade or protection. If it were a free bill it was against the tendency and drift of the age. Even England was beginning to realize the sad mistake she made when she did not confine the freedom of trade to raw materials and food. To borrow a simile from a former Oregon senator the bill was like a mule with no pride of ancestry nothing like it ever having gone before and no hope of posterity. He declared that some iron men had been bullied into giving reluctant assent to some of its features. The bill was a disturber and anarchist.

The president pro tem laid before the senate a communication from the Grand Army of the Republic inviting the public to attend memorial services at Arlington cemetery on Decoration Day. Laid on the table.

The senate then resumed consideration of the Indian appropriation bill and the amendments submitted by Hoar yesterday authorizing the president to dispense with the expenditure of any appropriations in the bill providing he may deem them unnecessary and the consent of the tribes shall be first obtained and also appropriating $10 000 to be expended for the benefit of tribes in such manner as the president with their consent shall approve, was laid on the table: yeas 31 nays 16.

The question then being on the amendment of the committee on appropriations providing that several appropriations be for teachers millers blacksmiths engineers and other employes on reservations and for various supplies for Indians may be diverted to other uses for the benefit of the Indians within the discretion of the president and with the consent of the tribes which was reported as a substitute for the [illegible] 4th and 5th sections of the house bill which authorized the commissioner of Indian affairs to employ Indians in farming or other civilized pursuits and pay them out of money appropriated for subsistence when it can be spared etc. also authorizing the secretary of the interior, in case of emergency requiring immediate action to use the funds appropriated for other purposes was agreed to with the amendment submitted by Hoar striking out the word teachers so that the fund appropriated for them should not be diverted.

Allison submitted an amendment providing that no purchase of supplies exceeding the aggregate value of $500 shall be made at any one time without advertisement except in case of emergency when purchases may be made in the open market not exceeding $3 000 in value; agreed to.

Various unimportant amendments were agreed to and the bill having been considered in committee of the whole was reported to the senate. Amendments made in committee were concurred in and the bill read a third time and passed.

Ferry from conference committee on the bill to regulate advertising of mails lettings submitted a report and explained the same.

Booth presented the joint resolution of the California legislature favoring the passage of a law providing for a lapse of at least five months between the day fixed for choosing electors and the day fixed for casting of their votes for president; referred to the committee on privileges and elections.

Kernan favored the bill as it came from the house.

Auction Sale of the Erie Railroad

(From the New York Sun.)

Then the sale began. For about two minutes there was no bid but at length Gov Morgan quietly said "Five Millions."

At this a tremor passed through the throng for the impression prevailed that the road would bring merely a nominal price the experience of most railroad auctions being that everything is cut and dried in advance. As the auctioneer began the usual repetition of the bid there was a perceptible tremor in his voice as though he were awed by the vastness of the amount. After his third repetition of "Five millions! Do I hear the half?" Mr Platt bid "Five and a half" and the auctioneer looking directly at Gov Morgan asked whether he heard the "Six millions."

The governor nodded with as cool an air as though he had been buying a cooking stove and in exactly four minutes from the beginning of the bidding the property was knocked down to Gov Morgan for six million dollars.

While the referee was drawing up the necessary papers Gov Morgan filled up a check on the Bank of Commerce for $720 000, 12 per cent of the price of the road and in a few minutes it came back from the bank duly certified. Most of the throng waited to see the transaction completed.

Indictments Dismissed.

San Francisco, May 9.—On motion of District Attorney Murphy Judge Wright last Saturday dismissed three indictments found by the grand jury on the 1st of September 1875 against George M Pinney for obtaining money under false pretenses. The ground of the dismissal was that the statements contained in the indictments are at variance with the facts.

Wife Murder

San Francisco, May 9.—Michael McDermott residing on Clementina street near First assaulted his wife with a chair this morning inflicting injuries probably fatal. McDermott was locked up pending his wife's injuries.

Kearney on the Rampage

Early this morning Kearney waited on the chief of police and expressed a desire to bring Sergeant Hannon and all those police engaged in dispersing the crowd at Kearney's meeting last night before the police commissioners. The chief told him to make his complaints in writing but refused to listen to any further talk on the subject, whereupon Kearney with a crowd of 200 or 300 of his followers came to the city hall. Kearney entered the mayor's office and in the absence of the mayor, submitted to the clerk a petition for the release of one O'Connell imprisoned for assaulting Hayward, known as the Potrero Blacksmith. Kearney then went on the outside mounted a wagon and began to harangue his followers, when the appearance of the police with instructions to disperse the crowd, caused him to beat a retreat.

THE SENATE AND THE N P R R BILL

The Washington correspondent of the St Paul Pioneer-Press says the Northern Pacific extension bill into which Mitchell inserted provisions which hamper the bill and render it quite worthless, might just as easily have passed without those provisions. Senator McMillan in the debate said: "I know that the company have been called on to submit to exactions here which no company should submit to." Senator Windom also characterized the conditions as onerous.

The correspondent says:

From the moment Mr Windom sat down after having delivered his speech in which he forcibly and eloquently presented to the senate the claims, condition misfortunes and possibilities of the Northern Pacific railroad it was apparent to every listener that a bill granting an extension of time in which to complete the road and give the company another "chance," would meet with no opposition from any fair minded senator on the floor of the senate. And the facts elicited in the subsequent debate over the bill presented to the senate so strong and equitable a case in behalf of the road that at the time the bill was passed I venture to say there was not a senator who if the ayes and noes had been ordered, would have been recorded against the bill. On the contrary it was so apparent to senators that every principle of justice and equity demanded that the thousands who had been induced to invest their money in the original bonds of the road which had been brought into existence by act of congress should, by a similar act of congress, be granted an opportunity to make the most of their investment without any unnecessary or unusual restriction and free from all onerous provisions that many senators went to the friends of the bill and declared it to be an outrage that the railroad committee had allowed Mitchell to hamper the bill in any way and if the friends of the road desired to do so they could then and there pass a bill relieved of all unnecessary restrictions in spite of the report of the committee.

Had it not been for an objection interposed by Senator Eaton of Connecticut, on Monday when the bill was up it would doubtless have passed on that day but the old fellow as is characteristic of him felt that the senate would not know of his presence if he should agree with all the rest of them so he evinced a decided opposition although he admitted he did not know anything about it. Not caring [illegible] the senator [illegible] the next day to let [illegible]. In the meantime however a list of about four [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] a million [illegible] stock of the company was sent to the senator [illegible] that [illegible] lived in [illegible] and formed a part of his constituents [illegible] the manner of the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the names [illegible] He would ejaculate "Why is Nancy Brown got some of this [illegible] Nancy [illegible] [illegible] I never knew before what [illegible] Sam [illegible] And so on to the end of the list. The fact [illegible] the senator being thus enlightened [illegible] [illegible] the Northern Pacific [illegible] the next day on [illegible] the senate [illegible] insisted that Mitchell's onerous provisions should not be incorporated in the bill.

THE DEATH OF O BRIEN

From the Alta California.

In the death of W S O'Brien California has lost a man whose peculiarly good fortune equalled in romance the fabulous tale of the discovery of Aladdin's lamp. Born in Ireland near Dublin about the year 1825 of humble parentage, he emigrated to this country at a boyish age. On arriving at New York he had the choice of entering a store or going to Texas and he chose the former position.

The guiding hand of an inscrutible Providence led him to try his luck in the new El Dorado of California and on the 6th of July 1849 he arrived in this port on board the ship Sarah to. He was therefore one of the earliest of the Argonauts who braved dangers in search of the Golden Fleece. On arriving upon this coast he was so poor that he had to earn a few dollars by assisting in discharging cargo from his vessel. And here it may be mentioned that he became indebted for a pair of boots and to many of his friends he frequently alluded to this fact and said how much he longed to meet the man in order that he might handsomely repay him.

As usual with most of these hardy adventurers he went to the mines, and in 1850 he is found in association with J C Flood (with whom he has ever been on the most brotherly terms and to whose judgment he probably owed no little of his worldly success) and J M Walker mining in Poorman's Gulch middle fork of Feather river. In the fall of 1851 he came to San Francisco and entered into business with the late Col W C Hoff of pioneer fame under the firm name of Hoff & O'Brien, in the liquor business. After this he went into the ship chandlery business with Capt W J Roemer on the corner of Drumm and Sacramento and there laid to a certain extent, the foundation of his future immense wealth. In 1854 he again joined his old partner J C Flood in the Auction Lunch Saloon on Washington street between Market and Sansome continuing in that business for twelve years, making a large number of friends and creating a large custom. In the meantime they watched the Stock Market closely and became interested in several mines which increased their already rapidly accumulating wealth. In 1867 they relinquished the saloon business and gave their undivided attention to mining the result of which was that in a few years they drew to themselves such immense wealth in so short a time that the name and power of the bonanza kings have become a household word all the world over. Scarcely if ever before in the history of the human race has fortune so favored men. The sight of two men of humble origin starting in life with scarcely a cent of capital ranking within a decade among the wealthiest of earth is one which strikes wonder in the minds of all. The Rothschilds Barings Westminsters and Bates of the old country required centuries the Astors and Vanderbilts of the new many long years, to approach them in degree but here we see, by almost one lucky strike, a few men who in a few months reached the highest pinnacle of wealth created power. The bonanza firm, the wealth of which it is impracticable to estimate, was composed of J C Flood (with one fifth interest), the late W S O'Brien, with one fifth, J G Fair (with one-fifth) and John Mackey (who purchased the share of J M Walker, of two fifths). Mr O'Brien's fortune is variously estimated at from fifteen to twenty millions of dollars which it is believed he has devised by his will, made at the suggestion of his physicians some two weeks since when his approaching dissolution was notified to him, to his remaining relatives, of whom he has two sisters, two nieces and a nephew. His partners are believed to be named as executors of his will. He died an unmarried man.

For some years past Mr O'Brien has not taken a very active part in the control of the enterprises in which he has been engaged although he was extremely proud of the Bank of Nevada, with its $10 000,000 of capital. He had implicit confidence in and was on terms of great friendship with his partners especially with his old time friend Mr Flood. His death will therefore in all probability not much affect the business relations of the great and powerful firm of which he was so fortunate a member.

Until the beginning of the year Mr O'Brien's health had been fair but in the latter part of January last he was seized with an attack of Bright's disease of the kidneys and liver ailment. He had the best of medical attendance and yet, in spite of all that science and skill and devoted and unwearying attention could do he gradually grew worse until there arose such a complication of ailments that a few short days ago it was intimated that all hopes of his recovery were despaired of. Upon the advice of his talented physicians Drs Hammond and Hubbard, he was removed to the Coleman Cottage at San Rafael. So weak had he become that his attendants had to remove him from the boat in their arms. The change affected him but little. In spite of an occasional rally, he gradually sank until at last surrounded by his old partner and brother in life's struggles, Dr Hubbard and several of his friends and relatives he sank quietly to rest. At 8 o'clock yesterday morning he began failing rapidly and at 2 40 P M passed away suddenly and peacefully, retaining his faculties to the end. Mr O'Brien, although taking a great interest in political contests has only once essayed to enter prominently into public life, and that was in 1862 when he contested a seat for the assembly but was defeated.

In private life the deceased was unostentatious and amiable greatly liked and respected by a large circle of friends with whom he lived on terms of affable bonhommie not untouched with that tinge of Bohemianism which respects wealth only for the sake of the material pleasures it brings. Against him it can never be alleged that his immense wealth puffed him up or made him ignore those with whom he had been associated in his earlier and poorer days. His many deeds of charity were not blazoned forth to the world but there are few left especially among his countrymen, who will not while they look back with pride to the grand career of the poor Irish boy who has made California a power in the financial headquarters of the world drop a tear over the grave of the millionaire.

HOW NEW YORK LIVES.

Three-quarters of all the inhabitants of New York city live in tenement houses. This fact and some of its consequences are brought out by investigations pursued by the World newspaper. Records of the department of buildings show that the number of tenement houses in the city is about 21,000. These buildings average four stories in height, and are so constructed that about ten families live in each. If each family be reckoned at five persons the tenement house population of the city would be 1,050,000; but the World deducts twenty per cent for houses or parts of houses not occupied. And on this basis it estimates the tenement population at not less, certainly, than 850,000. We are thus "confronted with the startling statement that of the million, in round numbers, of the human beings set down in the census as living in New York to-day, not more than two hundred thousand are grouped in families occupying separate homes, while at least eight hundred thousand dwell in houses intended to accommodate, or at least to receive, on the average, ten different households."

These houses, it is shown, are not for the most part so constructed as to make decent and comfortable living possible in them for the families crowded into them, even when work is plenty and bread cheap. They are built with the greatest economy of space, ventilation and safety. High and narrow, with contracted hallways and walls of the minimum thickness allowed by the department of buildings, with little or no open space in the rear, they are hardly bearable as places of habitation in winter and still less so in summer. It is their cheapness that gives them attraction for the poor, and their cheapness is due to the possibility of packing them with tenants, and to the practice of building them on the most economical plan. One of the most noticeable features of the tenement districts is the extraordinary number of drinking saloons they contain. At a casual glance the chronicler says one woulp conclude that there was a grog shop to every five houses. The keepers of these places are people of considerable political "influence." Almost without exception they are members of the district or general committees of their districts in some one of the various political parties. They are captains of tens and fifties of the retainers of the local political magnates; their "places" are the political headquarters of the various factions in the various election districts, and they are visited periodically by actual or expectant candidates for office who wish to "keep in with the boys."

New York is governed by these classes; and indeed similar classes are largely the dominant power in all our principal cities. But they are more so in New York than in any other. At their behest needless "public improvements" are forced at the expense of the property of the city, necessitating an army of officials, producing high taxes and doubling the city's debt every ten years. The limit of a city's growth under these disadvantages will in time be reached. Then will be witnessed the culmination of irresponsible government.

RIVER AND HARBOR BILL.

The record of the river and harbor appropriation bill and the report thereon, as published in the official paper of congress, fully bear out the sarcasm of Cox of New York. The bill was the fruit of a combination of members from all parts of the United States for a raid upon the treasury, and should have been so entitled. Fully half the total appropriation is for streams of no commercial importance; but each member wanted "something for his district," and this afforded the only probable opportunity of the session to get it. Out of seven millions appropriated only about three millions went to really important navigable streams. The rest was distributed around on fifth class rivers and first and second class creeks, just to get votes. Out of 166 votes the bill got in the house, 160 were those of members who were bent on securing part of the money to be spent in their districts. A congressman of western Pennsylvania, fighting for appropriations for small tributaries of the Allegheny, was not an exceptional case by any means, though this was a main feature of the report received by telegraph. Dozens of members from east, south and west fought for the particular brooks and runs of their several districts with the same vehemence and success. The bill was rushed through without much debate. Every member had something for his district in the bill, and it was thought best not to let scrutiny into the details. So the triumphant congressman bore off his appropriation for the improvement of the Scuppernong river in North Carolina, while his confederate from Mississippi got in a good sum for the Big Sunflower river, to keep company with the appropriation for Florida's Caloosahatchie and Pennsylvania's Kiskeminetas. But of course the distribution was not an impartial one. For the Kanawha, a petty stream of West Virginia, an appropriation of $222,000 was secured, while only $75,000 could be had for locks on the Columbia, one of the largest and most important rivers on the continent. The distribution appears to have been made on a simple arithmetical principle—that is to say, at so much per head for congressmen, rather than with any view to the real interests of navigation and commerce. Such course will do more to break down the whole theory of internal improvement at government expense than all the arguments of writers against it.

WASTEFULNESS IN STATE AFFAIRS.

A general conviction prevails that during a number of years there has been an extremely partisan and excessively wasteful administration of our state affairs. This conviction is not confined to adherents of the party opposed politically to the administration in power. Woods' administration was not a model one; but it was by comparison unfaithful only in little things while the Grover administration has been unfaithful in great things. It is admitted that the liabilities of the state are largely in excess of the constitutional limitation. It is a fact that the people are now paying a seven mill state tax, which every taxpayer knows is a rate in excess of that ever paid before! Under direction of the Republican state committee a pamphlet has been prepared in which the current expenditures of the Woods administration are grouped and arranged for convenience of comparison with those of the first four years of Grover, which are also presented in a digested and tabulated form. It is a very significant exhibit. A further comparison shows that during six years of Grover's administration, ending with September, 1876, the expenditures were enormously in excess of the entire cost of the government during the whole twelve years of Whiteaker, Gibbs and Wood. The statements prepared to sustain these points, or rather the statements from which these conclusions were drawn, are very elaborately detailed, and in every case the official record is cited. Naturally there should be a considerable increase of expense. The state grows and the cost of the public service grows with it. But there has been an increase of the latter which is out of all proportion. In a large degree it has been brought about by the methods which Gov. Grover and his associates instituted when they "organized the offices." Details given in this pamphlet seem to present very fully all parts of this account of official grabbing and wastefulness.

THE SALT LAKE BILL.

It will be seen that the senate committee has agreed to report the Salt Lake railroad bill. We should be really glad to see such bill become a law, provided there be anything in it. But it is understood that the grant is to be encumbered with conditions similar to those which are fatal to the Northern Pacific bill. If so no money can be had on it, and it will simply be a dead letter. It may be supposed that Col. Chapman has now very little interest in this grant. In his recent memorial, already noticed, he assumed that the interests of his company were sacrificed by the other bill. His second objection to the Northern Pacific bill as passed by the senate was stated thus: "It throws off and ignores altogether that portion of the Portland and Salt Lake line which lies between Salt Lake and the Columbia river." And inasmuch as his argument as to the portage roads tended to show that the other bill would not break monopoly on the Columbia river but establish and confirm it, the conclusion follows that the Salt Lake undertaking will be bottled up also by these various restrictions and crudities of legislation. The fact is there was only a single simple thing to do. That was to grant an extension for the Northern Pacific on such conditions as would afford greatest amount of aid for a railroad, and then, if possible, pass the Salt Lake bill also, on the simplest possible terms. As it is the country will get nothing whatever out of the promiscuous shuffle and clumsy entanglement.

Senator Grover in a recent letter, of which extracts are published, says it was never possible to pass "either of the other three railroad bills which have been before the senate;" meaning the bills which bound up the fortunes of the Northern Pacific and Salt Lake together. Moreover, he says, "When we get the Salt Lake road, all Eastern Oregon will do their overland business by the Northern Pacific, because it is the easiest and shortest road to Chicago." This is an argument which shows with great clearness and force what the true railroad policy is. Every exertion should be made to get the Northern Pacific, and all possible aid should be obtained for it. It is the great through line for the northwest. That its extension bill should have been delayed so long, and now is in a shape from which nothing can be expected of it, is an outrage on the country. It puts everything back for a year certainly, and perhaps for an indefinite time. Senator Grover, who evidently has some clear ideas on the subject, should have taken an active and earnest part against the scheme advanced by his colleague and persisted in, to the detriment of the whole northwest.

An eighty stamp mill for use in Peru's famous silver mine is under construction at San Francisco. The mine is situated in the heart of the Andes at an elevation of 14,000 feet above the sea level. Prior to 1826 it yielded, according to records of the government, the prodigious sum of $491,000,000, and was worked to a depth of only 200 feet. Modern machinery, now to be employed in the mine, will start once more an enormous flow of silver from Peru into the markets of the world. The mill for the mine will be, with one exception, the largest ever built. It will weigh six hundred tons, and a vessel will be chartered to carry it to the port of destination. Meiggs had leased this celebrated mine from the Peruvian government, and his partner, William H. Cilley, now prosecutes the work.

It is estimated that the present Russian force in Eastern Turkey reaches an effective total of 180,000 men. Though there is continued talk of a peace congress, it is manifest Russia has steadily been making greatest possible exertions for threatened war. So great a force in Turkey is the highest possible proof of preparation and purpose; and the refusal to release Turkish prisoners lest they might be employed against the Russian armies in case of war with England, indicates a degree of caution which is not very hopeful of peace.

There is no effort anywhere to force candidates for the legislature to declare a preference for any person for United States senator. The point simply is that those who do not want any given person for senator do not mean to be deluded into voting for those who will support him.

The managers are getting "the ticket" in shape to be presented to the convention for ratification. Last night there was a caucus at "our hotel" to fix it. The result will appear in the convention to-morrow.

The Horse that Saw Custer Die.

[From the San Francisco Alta.]

Major General S. D. Sturgis, of the Seventh United States Cavalry, has issued a general order from his headquarters at Fort Abraham Lincoln, Dakota territory, by which the horse "Comanche" has conferred upon him special honors. The order recites that the horse known as "Comanche" being the only living representative of the bloody tragedy of the Little Big Horn, June 25th, 1876, his kind treatment and comfort should be a matter of pride and solicitude on the part of every member of the Seventh Cavalry, to the end that his life may be prolonged to the utmost limit. Wounded and scarred as he is, his very existence speaks in terms more eloquent than words of the desperate struggle against overwhelming numbers, of the hopeless conflict and of the heroic manner in which all went down on the fatal day.

"The South will not have Mr. Tilden."

[From the Charleston News and Courier (Dem.)]

The national Democracy have been beaten once by the feebleness of their leader, and the south says, distinctly and positively, that it does not mean to be so beaten again. The person who prevented the Democracy from enjoying the fruits of victory in 1877 will not be allowed to play the same game over again four years later. Mr. Tilden is not entered for the race. The south bars him. It is distinction enough for Mr. Tilden to be the only person elected president, since the foundation of the republic, who did not obtain his office. This position is unique, like Mr. Tilden, and it is not proposed to compromise his dignity by allowing him to become president. The south will not have Mr. Tilden.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 10, 1878.

CITY.

A FORGER ARRESTED.—Several weeks ago T. J. Blake, an individual by no means unknown in this country, especially among the newspaper fraternity, came to Portland from Woodburn, Marion county. Soon after reaching this city Blake went up to the store of P. Selling, on First street, and presented an order for $15. The name of Ben Brown, who lives at Woodburn, was signed to the order. It was duly honored on presentation, and the amount called for was taken out in clothes by Blake. Mr. Selling soon ascertained that the order was forged, Mr. Brown having denied ever giving such an order to Blake. Chief Besser was notified, and Officer Daniels detailed to work up the case. Blake, in the meantime, had left the city and gone over to Washington territory. Daniels ascertained the whereabouts of Blake, but was compelled to wait until the necessary papers could be obtained. A requisition having been procured, Officer Daniels started after his man Tuesday. He found Blake stopping at a house on the Washougal river, some distance from Vancouver, and arrested him. When arrested the accused was getting ready to start out toward the foot of the Cascades on a hunting and fishing tour. Officer and prisoner arrived here yesterday morning from Vancouver. An examination was held before Judge Adams yesterday afternoon, and the testimony tending strongly to show that the defendant was guilty of the offense charged, he was held to await the action of the grand jury. His bond was fixed at $400, and not being able to furnish bail, was committed. The testimony against the accused is said to be conclusive.

ANOTHER TELEPHONE.—The Water Company have connected their office and the water works, above the city, by means of a telephone, and yesterday got everything in good working order. The distance between the works and office is over a mile and a half. The telephone was found to work like a charm. During the afternoon a number of gentlemen called at the Water Company's office and had the pleasure of experimenting on the instrument. Mr. T. F. Stumble, who was up at the water works, amused the company by singing through the telephone "Old John Brown," "The Old Sexton," and other selections. Every note could be distinctly heard and the words. Even a whisper could be plainly caught. This telephone is of great utility, and it will be used in giving and receiving orders, instructions, etc., from the office.

FLORAL CONCERT.—Next Sunday a Scriptural floral concert will be given by the teachers and pupils of the North Portland M. E. Mission Sunday School. A programme of exercises, having the "Flowers of the Bible" as the central thought, has been prepared and will be used at the concert. One of the exercises, "The Hidden Cross," will require the assistance of about twenty scholars. There will be a solo, a quartet, singing by a class, reading, recitations, etc. All friends of the school are invited. Collection will be taken for the benefit of the school. The exercises to commence at 3½ o'clock. Mr. F. S. Aiken is superintendent of this school, which is said to be in a very prosperous condition.

UNEXPECTED DEATH.—Wednesday, Mrs. Nannie Jackson, beloved consort of Mr. Walter Jackson, died suddenly in this city. Deceased was the daughter of Mr. John C. Bell of Salem. At the time of her death her husband was absent from the city, having gone south a few days ago. Yesterday the remains were conveyed to Salem and the funeral took place from the Episcopal church at 2 o'clock P. M. Mrs. Jackson was an accomplished lady, a kind mother and a devoted wife, and was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

NEW HOTEL.—Mr. Jas. J. Burton of Yamhill county, proposes to construct the present season, a large brick hotel at the corner of Third and F streets. The building will be 80x100 feet, three stories in height and will contain about 75 rooms. When completed, this hotel will be occupied by Messrs. Leuraton & Fretland, who are proprietors of the Minnesota House. The well known architect, W. H. Williams, has the drafting of the plans, and Robert Potter is the contractor. Work on the new building will be pushed forward to an early completion.

COUNTY CONVENTION.—To-morrow afternoon the Republican county convention will meet at the courthouse for the purpose of placing in the field a full county ticket. There will be candidates to nominate for the following offices: One state senator, seven members of the house, one clerk, one treasurer, one county judge, two county commissioners, one sheriff, one assessor, one superintendent of schools, and one coroner. We presume candidates will also be nominated for the offices of justice of the peace and constable in the several precincts.

SLIGHTLY INACCURATE, WE GUESS.—In the San Francisco Bulletin of May 2d we find the following paragraph: "The sale of season tickets for the May festival are unexpected large. Mr. Kinross, the gentleman dispatched to Oregon in the interest of the festival, returned on the steamship Oregon. He reports that the Oregon people want to charter the new steamer for a special voyage to attend the festival. The Oregon choristers engaged in preparing for the chorus at the festival, held a concert recently to raise funds to defray their expenses, and netted $800."

A HEAVY MORTGAGE.—Wednesday a heavy mortgage was recorded in the county clerk's office. It was for $293,495 87, given by the Oregon Steamship Co., J. N. Dolph vice president, and J. D. Biles secretary, to Richard Koehler, Portland; Milton S. Latham and Wm. Norris, San Francisco; Rudolph Sulzbach and Meritz Sulbach, of Frankfort-on-the-Main. The property was mortgaged as follows: Steamships Geo. W. Elder, $100,000; City of Chester, $30,000; Oregon, $100,000, and the dock and warehouse in this city, $40,000.

DIED AT SEA.—Mr. D. D. Gibson died at sea on board the steamer Geo. W. Elder on the 7th inst. Mr. Gibson was well known to most of our business men, having been engaged in trade in both Eastern and Western Oregon for a number of years. Deceased had spent the past two years in California battling with that dread destroyer, consumption. Despairing of relief, he started for his former home, but died as above stated on the voyage hither.

FLOUR-MILL DESTROYED.—The following dispatch was received last evening from St. Joseph, Yamhill county: "The large steam flour mill in McMinnville was burned to the ground this afternoon. The mill and contents are a total loss. About five hundred bushels of wheat and a quantity of flour was consumed. No estimate can be given at present of the loss. The fire caught from sparks from the flue."

DOWN AN EMBANKMENT.—A Chinese child, about two years of age, while playing near the foot of Yamhill met with a severe fall. The little fellow in toddling around ventured too near the edge of the sidewalk, and losing his balance fell down the embankment, a distance of nearly 20 feet. Nothing more serious than a few bruises was sustained. The only wonder is that the child was not killed outright.

TRIED AND SUBMITTED.—In the circuit court yesterday for Clackamas county, the case of State of Oregon vs J. H. Sadler, was concluded and submitted to the jury at a late hour in the afternoon. This case has been on trial several days and has attracted much public attention. Sadler was indicted for murder in the first degree, and the evidence, it is said, is strong against the defendant.

BAND OF HELPERS.—There will be a meeting of the Band of Helpers at the Home, on Columbia street, between Fifth and Sixth, at 2:30 o'clock, sharp. A full attendance is desired. All who feel interested in the good work are earnestly invited to be present.

MASS CONVENTION.—By notice elsewhere it will be seen that a mass convention of Workingmen will be held this evening at Good Templars' Hall to nominate a legislative ticket. As this will be an important occasion, no doubt there will be a large attendance.

A POOR HAND IN CRITICISM.

A correspondent of the Vancouver Independent essays a criticism upon the expression "A Watery Bier" which headed a paragraph in THE OREGONIAN the other day He says

As I had never heard of a Watery Bier I turned to Webster's unabridged which says that a bier is a carriage or frame of wood for conveying dead human bodies to the grave hence, according to THE OREGONIAN the Willamette river is a watery frame of wood

That critic of course never read Milton's Lycidas which every person who ever read anything knows by heart else he would have remembered at once the lines

> He must not float upon his watery bier
> Unwept and welter to the parching wind
> Without the meed of some melodious tear

Legal tenders in Portland—buying 99½, selling par.

Silver coin, 2@2½ per cent. discount.

In the local market there are no important financial changes or transactions to record. The average volume of business at the usual rates is reported, and an increase in the demand for accommodations incidental to growth of the trade of the season.

A commercial letter from New York, dated the 5th, gives a rather glowing account of the business prospects in the east. Resumption, even before the appointed time, now seems to be a foregone conclusion. An active inquiry for government bonds, an easy market for sterling exchange, and increased buoyancy in stocks, are among the encouraging features of the situation. The practical removal of the uncertainty that has so long prevailed concerning resumption, greatly lessens the strain of suspense under which the business community has long been laboring, and, with brightening prospects, people are looking up again, and indulging hopes that are well grounded. From all parts of the country come glowing reports of the crops. Nothing equal to the present promise was ever before known at this period, and, with no serious mishap later on, the harvest will be simply enormous.

Domestic Produce.

The wheat market remains in about the same condition as noted a week ago, the receipts being very light and millers being about the only purchasers, shippers evincing but little inclination to handle the cereal at present current rates, and under the impossibility of getting a sufficient quantity to remunerate them for the trouble of moving it. Choice lots for millers' use are in demand, and some of such has been placed at $1 90@2 recently, but this cannot be said to be the price which, were exporters in the market, would not be above $1 85 for shipping. The lessened probabilities of a European war seems to have somewhat depressed the English markets, though the short supplies there will keep prices up till the new crop comes in. The excellent prospects of abundant harvests here and in California, so often referred to before, are unchanged.

Flour is in light supply even for the season, and prices remain firm as at the time of our last report, and the same figures are still given in quotations of the market.

Oats, for feed purposes, are somewhat declining in demand, as the green feed has come forward rapidly during the past week or two, but choice lots for milling or shipment are still in good request, and the trade is not more than supplied with best qualities for such purpose. As high as 46 cents has been paid for fair lots to fill orders, but the current market rate is 2½@5 cents per bushel lower.

Potatoes, which have recently been so high, have followed the course we predicted a week ago, and the market has shown a generally declining tendency for several days past. Dealers and shippers are not quite agreed as to fair quotations to-day, the medium price being about $1 20 per bushel, with occasional sales and refusals both above and below those figures. The receipts have materially declined in volume, and the surplus within reach of this market is so light that the local consumption will from this time till the new crop begins to come forward have to be supplied at rates higher than is usually paid.

Eggs are somewhat scarce and rather dearer, shippers having cleared the market at 20 cents. A better price is asked by jobbers to supply the local trade.

We hear of nothing specially new in relation to the wool market. Occasional lots are coming from up the Columbia, and though much of it is stored to await a turn in the market, a few sales are reported at 18c for inferior to 22@24c for good to choice. There is quite a number of buyers in the market, and chances to sell are not difficult to find.

New York Freights and Markets.

NEW YORK, May 9.—The weather to-day has been gloomy, and there has not been much doing at the wharves of Pacific vessels, except closing out the Harvey Mills, which vessel dropped down stream this afternoon and will sail as soon as the weather clears. The ships to follow are about one-third loaded, and with engagements may get off in ten days. Tonnage is not offered as freely as at some time since. Still, none of the lines are in want of vessels. The ship Abner J. Benyoan, 2,044 tons, has been taken to load general cargo from this port for San Francisco and the bark Alice Reed for Honolulu. The cargo of the Harvey Mills embraces 458 cs boots, 153 pkgs leaf tobacco, 750 tons coal, 52 cs canned goods, 489 pcs plank, 100 tons pigiron, 81 bbls tar, 88 bbls whisky, 550 bbls plaster, 1000 bxs candles, 1250 kgs nails, 1993 bars steel rails, 250 bxs soap, 687 pkgs dry goods and a lot of water pipe, iron, etc. The steamer sailed hence to day with a full cargo for the California market, but the official figures have not been obtained.

Advices from Philadelphia represent a fair business has been done by the old line. The Pactolus, of the new line, hangs and will not get off before ten days.

Markets quiet. Flour, dull and 5@15c lower to sell. Wheat is more active but decidedly lower, closing weak. Pork, better demand at lower price. Rio coffee quiet and held at full figures. Refined sugars are firm and in good demand. Teas, inactive auction sales to-day were not attractive in quality and rates were easy. Hides, dull and unchanged. Petroleum and turpentine unchanged; crude whale and sperm oils steady, dull. Wool continues exceedingly quiet. New clip California is arriving freely and finds fair sale. Sales include 200 bales old and new spring; 1,000 lbs old at 20a22c; 150,000 lbs fall at 15c.

Home Produce Market.

WHEAT—The market continues in the same quiet condition noticed last week, with no improvement in the demand for shipments, the few lots arriving being generally taken by millers at $1 85@1 95. Contracts for the new crop are reported at $1 60@1 65.

OATS—There is but little animation in the trade and shipments are light. Prices vary with the wants of buyers, and range from 40 to 45 cents per bushel.

FLOUR—Supplies are light and prices steady at $5 50@5 75 in jobbing lots, while small lots are held at $6 for standard extras. Good country brands are quotable at $5@5 25; superfine $4 50 per barrel.

BARLEY—The receipts, which are quite light, are all taken for local consumption at $1 40@1 50 per cwt. No shipments are being made.

MILL FEED—Supply fair, bran quotable at $20 per ton, shorts $22 50; middlings $32 50@35.

POTATOES—The receipts have materially declined and prices are lower, shippers now offering about $1@1 10 per bushel, but commission houses often have opportunities to sell to the local trade at $1 20@1 25.

HAY—Receipts continue quite adequate to the demand; prices range from $10@11 per ton for baled timothy and $8 50@9 for loose do.

ONIONS—In fair demand for the local trade, and for shipment, quotable at $2 per lb for best varieties.

BACON—The demand for good new is quite brisk and prospects for the trade improved. Sides are quoted at 10@10½c per lb; shoulders, 7@7½c; hams, 11@12½c for fair to good, sugar cured, 15c.

LARD—The supply is ample and the market quiet at 10@12½ cents ℔ lb.

DAIRY PRODUCTS—Butter, solid, 15@16c ℔ lb; brine, 16@18c; choice dairy 30@35c; cheese, quotable at 15@16c ℔ lb. Market quiet, dull.

EGGS—There has been some scarcity during the week, and the market is firm at 20c per dozen.

CHICKENS—Very choice hens, $5 per dozen; mixed lots, $4; spring chickens, $3@4 50.

HIDES AND FURS—We quote best selected hides at 14@15c ℔ lb; culls, ⅓ off; green, salted, 5a6c; elk, 6a8c ℔ lb; deer, 20a30 ℔ lb for dried, and 50a75 each, green; mink skins, 50@$1 each; otter, $1 each; beaver, 75@$1 15 ℔ lb.

FRESH MEATS—Beef, dressed, 4@5c ℔ lb; on foot, 2a2½c; dressed hogs, 6@6½c ℔ lb; mutton sheep $2@2 50 ℔ head.

WOOL—No important sales are noted. The spring clip is coming forward in small lots, and is quotable at 20@23c for fair to choice and 18@20 for lower grades.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Acute Diseases,

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease, in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

DR. BRENAN has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success, not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of, and never fails to give relief at once, and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints, and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health.

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

DR. BRENAN will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally, and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments, to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps.

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify.

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland, requiring medical treatment of the proper kind, who desire to consult with me, will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so-called Doctors, through pretended friendship for the patients. Look out for them; they are knaves, prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR. PAUL M. BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer, and read his sign on his door.

GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Destitution among Coal Miners.

ST. LOUIS, May 9.—Miners in the Illinois coal district opposite this city publish an appeal in the morning papers asking for provisions to keep their families from starving.

Communism and Firearms.

NEW YORK, May 9.—If the statements of dealers in arms are conclusive, no systematic preparations have been made in this city for a communist uprising. They all declare that business was never duller than now; that very few arms were bought by residents of the city, and that the chief orders came from Illinois, which is making great efforts to get [illegible] organizations [illegible] and from California, [illegible] secretly to [illegible] Chinese from that state.

Fenianism and its Follies.

NEW YORK, May 10.—The local Fenian leaders repudiate Mulligan. Gen. T. F. Bourke, trustee of the skirmishing fund, regards Mulligan's utterances as bosh. A Mr. O'Donovan, of Brooklyn, says as for hurling 20,000 men armed and equipped into Canada in thirty hours it is absurd. Not even the government of the United States can do that. However the day has gone by for saying that England's difficulty is Ireland's opportunity. We have men now who propose to make opportunity by creating a difficulty.

A Murderer Waited For.

NEW YORK, May 10.—The Italian government has private detectives watching every vessel arriving for the notorious chief bandit Tirolioni, accused of committing thirty murders and many robberies.

A Great Wedding.

CLEVELAND, May 9.—This evening Senator J. D. Cameron and Miss Elizabeth Sherman were married. The floral decorations were lavish and elegant. One hundred and fifty relatives and near friends attended the reception at the residence of Colgate Hoyt, Esq., on Case avenue, a brother-in-law of the bride. The wedding gifts were numerous and costly, their aggregate value being $100,000.

The National Party.

NEW YORK, May 10.—The executive council of the National party met here to-day, D. B. Sturgeon, of Ohio, presiding, and discussed the plan for systematic organization throughout the country. Gratifying reports of the condition of the party were announced as received from all quarters.

Millinery Seized.

BOSTON, May 10.—The custom house authorities seized a quantity of millinery and other goods belonging to milliners of this city and smuggled by them to New York.

The Kautz Court Martial.

OMAHA, May 10.—The Kautz court martial adjourned sine die to-day, and the result of the deliberations of the court are not made public, but forwarded to Washington where decision will be announced in due time.

The Permanent Exhibition.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—The permanent exhibition which has been closed for some time past to allow of a thorough renovation, was re-opened to the public to-day with appropriate ceremonies. Senators Blaine, Bayard and Wallace were present, and Blaine made an eloquent address.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Florida Investigation.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Members of the joint Democratic caucus committee, together with Democratic members of the house judiciary committee and other prominent Democratic representatives, including Springer, Finlay and Williams of Michigan, who have had immediate charge of the subject of the alleged Florida presidential frauds, after consultation with Speaker Randall to-day reached the conclusion that investigation of matters connected with this subject is not a question of privilege, and that therefore nothing can be done except in the regular order of business. Consequently it was determined that the proposition for investigation should come from the judiciary committee when it shall again be called for a report. The house committee will then ask for authority to investigate all facts in relation to the last election of members of congress and of presidential electors in Florida, with a view of ascertaining whether the statements of McLin and others are true. Investigation to be confined to these points only, and without reference to the question of presidential title.

CHICAGO, May 10.—The Inter-Ocean's Washington special says: Associate Justice Field is becoming very conspicuous, and occasions much criticism from the active part he takes in arranging plans for the Florida investigation.

California Surveyor-Generalship.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—It was expected that a successor for surveyor general would be definitely selected to-day, but owing to the presence of routine business, Secretary Schurz postponed his conference with the president on this subject until to-morrow.

Mare Island Dry Dock.

Representative Luttrell, who has been confined to his room by illness during the past week, was able to go to the capitol to-day, where he made an argument before the subcommittee of the house committee on naval affairs in advocacy of his bill for the completion of the Mare Island stone dry dock. The sub-committee will report to the full committee next Tuesday, recommending that a liberal appropriation be made for the purpose.

Resolved to Investigate.

CHICAGO, May 10.—The Journal's Washington special says the Democratic caucus having decided to instruct the judiciary committee to report a resolution for the investigation of the Florida election by that committee, it seems difficult to find a member willing to introduce the instructing resolution. Blair's predictions have not been justified, and if the judiciary committee is so instructed it will probably be by Republican votes.

CANADA.

Canada and the Fenians.

MONTREAL, May 10.—The mayor has received a letter recently from Massachusetts stating that the Fenians are making formidable preparations for a raid on Canada. On the suggestion of the mayor a meeting of Protestant and Catholic citizens will be held to consider in friendly spirit the best means to allay existing party differences.

Parliament Prorogued.

OTTAWA, May 10.—The governor-general prorogued the parliament this afternoon.

New York Herald: Any other man than Samuel J. Tilden would have grit enough to make the movement against Hayes very painful against the incumbent. But Tilden seems to be as flimsy as a dish rag.

Mr. Butler Johnstone, who has withdrawn from the house of commons, and whose Raphael painting lately sold for $125,000, recently paid $70 for a dinner which he enjoyed by himself.

the passengers and with medical aid for the wounded, who were temporarily placed in a warehouse on the quay. Subsequently they were taken to the Derry infirmary, and three of them were last night pronounced hopeless. Two of the bodies recovered were identified as those of members of the crew. Some passengers are reported missing, but this may be owing to the existing confusion and to the fact that a majority of the passengers do not
